The net proceeds of the Academy of Music Ball are about $250.

An early spring is predicted. This means good crops and lush times.

Large assortment of Frames kept on hand at Thompson & Chambers' Gallery over the U. S. Land Office.

Our young friends, M. and C. Patton, have commenced business in the Begley blacksmith shop, and are now prepared to do blacksmithing on short notice at reasonable charges.

Some of Iron County's sidewalks need repairing greatly, and we trust the City authorities will jog the memories of certain property-holders in regard to their duties to the public. They are not all so prompt as Messrs. Holson and Garnier.

LEIS' DANDELION TONIC is not "Whisky Bitters" or a "Fancy Drink" which may lead the user on to drunkenness and ruin, but it is a true, reliable medicine which has been used for the past fifteen years and has been prescribed and used by many leading physicians.

There will be a call meeting of the Knights of Honor this (Wednesday) evening, for the purpose of disposing of some important business. Brothers are earnestly requested to be present.

By order of the Dictator.

The first of the series of the Saturday Evening Assemblies at the Academy of Music was given on the 7th inst. It was well attended, and the three and a half hours for dancing were sedulously improved, albeit all the arrangements had not been completed. Another of the series will be given on the evening of the 14th inst.

DESIRABLE FARM FOR SALE.—Consisting of 90 acres, lying about 4 1/2 miles east of Arcadia College; dwelling one and a half stories high,

We wish to call the attention of the public to the consideration of a Charity Ball that is proposed to be given in the first week of February next. The object of this ball is to raise funds for the worthy poor of Iron County. There will be no soliciting, with the exception of a paper left in the hands of Mr. Peck, the Postmaster, on which all are invited to put down the sum they are willing to give to this most worthy object.

DIED.—At Pilot Knob, Mo., Friday, January 6th, 1882, at the residence of his father, F.
Schmittner, Esq., ANTON SCHMITTNER, aged 11 years, 10 months, and 13 days.

The death of this promising boy was peculiarly sad and unexpected. On Saturday before Christmas he received a wound in the hand from a toy pistol in the possession of a comrade. The hurt, at first regarded as slight, inflamed a couple of days after, and became rapidly worse until the victim was seized with lockjaw, and death resulted. His sorrowing relatives have our warmest sympathy.

One of the pleasantest events of the season was a Surprise Party tendered Judge J. W.
Emerson and his estimable lady, by the young people of the Valley on last Monday evening.
Their new and elegant residence was thrown open for the evening's entertainment and was brilliantly lighted. Judge and Mrs. Emerson received their guests with their usual charming hospitality. Dancing, and both vocal and instrumental music served to pass away the hours until midnight, when the company dispersed wishing their kind host and hostess many happy returns of the day.

HARVEY AND THE ELUD.—Harvey discovered the circulation of the book, and, upon announcing the fact, was ridiculed and laughed at. Food makes blood, and blood makes beauty. Improper digestion of food necessarily produces bad blood, a full stomach, acidity, heartburn, sick headache and other dispeptic symptoms. A closely confined life leads to indigestion, constipation, oiliness, loss of appetite. You do not want pills, but you need a few doses of that sparkling purgative known as Bailey's SALINE APERIENT. It aids digestion, cleanses the stomach, cools the brain and unloads the bowels.

The Chionix Club met at Mrs. S. H. Del-ano's, pursuant to adjournment, last Friday evening, notwithstanding the mud waded through by the members. Programme—First half hour, i. e., from seven to half-past, the arrival of members and chit-chat. Next two hours spent in comparing notes upon the following characters: Julius Caesar, Claudius, Annius Plantius, Caracalla, Drusus, Boadicea, Agricola, S. Verus, Constantius, and Constantine. Next half hour, sociability and departure of members, who had previously agreed to meet again at seven o'clock the coming Friday evening, and review the same lesson, together with the subjects of Roman walls in Britain, Romans of Drunthead temples, other antiquities, Prince Arthur, the Angles, the Saxons, and the Jutes up to the time of the first invasion of England by the Saxons.

M. C. C.
We clip the following from the Davenport (Iowa) Gazette of the 6th inst.: "At the home of Alderman George R. Marvin, No. 225 Perry street, a quiet but all the pleasant wedding for the favored ones, took place last evening at seven o'clock. The groom is Mr.
T. R. Countryman, a civil engineer on the Mexican International railroad, and three years ago connected with the United States Engineer's office in Rock Island, a young man whose future promises much. The bride was Miss Ada Jaquith, of Pilot Knob, Missouri, a niece of Alderman Marvin, whose family she has been visiting for some time, and a young lady of most pleasant manners.
The ceremony was performed by Rev. N. M.
Clute, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church.
Last evening's train bore Mr. and Mrs. Countryman to Chicago, where they visit friends for a few days, after which they go to Hastings, Minn., to see Mr. C.'s parents."

THE WEEK OF PRAYER.—The week of prayer has drawn to a close. The union services were held on the nights of Sabbath, Monday, and Tuesday at the Presbyterian Church, Wednesday at the Iron County Methodist Church, Wednesday at F. R. Hill, and Friday and Saturday at the Baptist Church in Iron County.

Reve. Berryman, Donaldson, Wright and Boulter led the meetings; and the meetings concluded willingly, there being a hearty participation by the people. It was a cause of sorrow that the bodily afflictions of Fathers Berryman and Donaldson prevented our enjoying much of the rich fruits of their well expended spiritual experiences, and that we did not see among us at all the earnest, pleasant face of Brother Bell, but it is hoped that the presence of his spirit aided to make Tuesday night the happiest night of the week.

It is too soon to count the fruits of the week of prayer; but it is safe to predict that whilst sectarian lines will stand where they did, there will be a flowing together of individual Christianity, and many will feel "That when the stream that overflowed the soul Has passed away, the conscience remains That it hath left deposited along the silent shores Of memory, images and precious thoughts That cannot die, and shall not be destroyed."
T. C.

We dropped into the Chambers-Thompson Photograph Gallery one day last week, and found the interior so changed in its appointments that we scarcely recognized the place.
The whole of the second story of the large Wilkinson building is put to various uses in such a manner as to make it convenient to the artist and pleasant to the sitter. The reception room is nicely fitted up where one may pleasantly pass the usually tedious time intervening between his arrival and the "turn" before the camera. The background of the picture room has been fitted up so that one's photo may be in parlor or on lawn, as he desires. The "dark-room" has been greatly enlarged and is furnished with every appliance known to the art. The finishing room is in front, well lighted, and just the sort of a place the artist needs to encourage him to do good work. We found Mr. Chambers so businessly engaged that we couldn't do much interviewing; but he assured us he was now in trim to execute every variety of picture-taking in the best manner at reasonable figures.

The picture he was then engaged on proved the first part of his assertion, and our readers can satisfy themselves of the correctness of the latter by simply calling and seeing it themselves.

PERSONALS.—Mrs. Szege, who came here to attend the Taylor-Roberts wedding, left Monday morning for her home in Chicago.
Mrs. Szege is a very intelligent and estimable lady and won the esteem of all who were so fortunate as to meet her. May she return in the near future.

Mr. Abington returned Monday to Carondelet and business.

Dr. Warren Harvey, of Iron Mountain, was in town Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Roberts have returned from their bridal tour, and will henceforth be at home to their friends.

Miss Nellie Brierton, of Iron Mountain, came down Saturday and returned Monday. We understand Miss Nellie will be enrolled as a pupil at the Ursuline Convent after February 1st.

Mr. Adolph Loew sent to St. Louis last Tuesday and returned Saturday.

Mr. Harry Noel, accompanied by his cousin, Miss Kate Card, came down Saturday to visit their aunt, Mrs. Shepherd, who is spending the winter in the Valley.

Mr. J. G. Urney, of Chicago, spent several days in town last week.

Mr. Mark Cammann was in town last Saturday.

Mr. Jim Hill, of Fredericktown, spent a couple of days in town last week.

Mr. T. Moore will be in town sometime this week. He is travelling in the interest of a Louisville firm.

Mr. R. A. Kendall, late Land Agent for the L. M. R. R., was in town Tuesday.

IRONTON SCHOOL BUILDING, Jan. 7, 1882.
Pursuant to a previous call, the teachers of Iron County, Pilot Knob, and Iron County schools met at the school house in Iron County, for the purpose of organizing a Teachers' Association.

At 11 o'clock A. M., the meeting was called to order by Mr. C. B. Isham, of the Iron County school, who presided during the day.

On motion, Mr. F. C. Miller was chosen Secretary.

At the suggestion of the teachers, the President and Secretary were appointed to draft suitable Constitution and By-Laws for the government of the organization.

Dr. Griffith, C. B. Isham, and H. C. Davis were appointed to prepare a programme of exercises for the afternoon session.

The meeting then adjourned, to meet again at 1:30 P. M.

AFTERNOON SESSION.
The Association assembled for business at 2 P. M., and was called to order by the President.

The committee appointed for that purpose reported a form of Constitution and By-Laws; and the same, being read by Mr. Davis, were received, and the committee discharged. The blanks were then properly filled, and the report adopted as a whole.

The Constitution, as read, provided that the County Commissioner should be ex-officio President of the Association, and also provided for the election of three Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, and a Treasurer; whereupon the meeting proceeded to elect the officers provided for, as follows: 1st Vice-President, Mr.
A. P. Vance, Principal of Iron Mountain school; 2d Vice-President, T. G. Foley, 3d Vice-President, C. B. Isham, Principal of Iron County school; Secretary, F. C. Miller, Principal of Pilot Knob school; and Miss Emma Griffith, Treasurer.

The Association then adjourned, to meet again upon the call of the Executive Committee.

The Executive Committee met immediately after the adjournment of the Association, and decided to call the next meeting at Iron County on February 4th, at which time a full programme of exercises will be presented.

N. C. GRIFFITH, President.
F. C. MILLER, Secretary.

Pilot Knob Items.

Miss CLARA JAQUITH will go to St. Louis this week, where she will begin an advanced course in music at some of the Conservatories of Music there.

J. J. TIERNY, Agent of the Iron Mountain railroad at this place, will, we are informed, go to Colorado soon in search of a new field of honor.

WM. G. CRANE returned to school at Rolla on Monday, where he will remain till June.

DIED.—Friday, January 6th, of lockjaw, caused by a wound from a toy pistol, ANTON SCHMITTNER, aged 11 years and 10 months.

"THE LITERARY SOCIAL" met again, with a full house, Friday night, after three weeks' vacation. The exercises consisted of songs, readings, declamations, debate and a Society paper, the "Literary Star." A number of very pretty songs were sung, among which we noticed particularly the one entitled "Drinking Gin." Miss Cora Crane favored the Society with a reading; her selection, "The Polish Boy," was a good one, and was responded to in a manner that would have done honor to a professional declaimer. Other good readings were furnished by Misses Augusta Kath and Minnie Ditts, and Master Clark Curtis. Mr. Alfred Jaquith and Miss May Curtis edited and read No. 4 of the "Literary Star," which was highly appreciated. We would just remark here, that the above periodical is one of the liveliest, spiciest, newest, and funniest journals of the kind that we have known, and the REGISTER should exchange with it. The exercises were closed with a debate on "Female Education," by Mr. Gus Gockle vs. Mr. Todd.

OCCASIONAL.

Resolutions of Respect.

WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God in his wise providence to take out of the world the soul of our sister ANN RERI; and, WHEREAS, We sincerely mourn the loss of her who was taken away, whose character possessed many admirable traits, and whose hands are removed from the complete circle that has so often surrounded our altars; but when we mourn we do not forget her promise of immortality and celestial joy. Therefore Resolved, That, in recognition of our loss, the charter of our Lodge be draped in mourning, and that the members will wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.

Resolved, That the relatives of the deceased be handed a copy of these resolutions; also, that a copy be sent to the IRON COUNTY REG-ISTER for publication.

OBITUARY.

DIED.—November 16th, 1881, at 9 o'clock A.
M., JAMES MC., son of Josiah and Huldah Davis, of Woodford, Ohio, aged 33 years, 5 months and 29 days.

Deceased died of typhoid fever in Iron County, Missouri, at the residence of Mr.
Joseph Phillips, where he was kindly nursed and his wants ministered to by Mr. Phillips and family. A letter was written notifying his friends of his illness, but to their lasting regret it was delayed and not received until it was too late to go to him. A short time before he died he said, "God is taking me home," and inquired what time it was. On being told that it was 5 o'clock he said, "My sun is almost down." On being asked if he was prepared for death, he replied, "Oh, yes," and folded his hands across his breast and died without a struggle. Thus in a strange land his sun went down while it was yet day.

Far from father, mother and home, he died;
Far from friends and friends, he passed; Strangers' hands his wants attended; Alone with strangers his journey ended.

Strangers smoothed his pillow and brow; Strangers laid him where he is resting now.
But Mack was not a stranger to Gospel truth,
For he was born of the Spirit while yet a youth;
And through his life and sickness he had a friend Who journeyed with him even unto the end;
Was with him when he drew his latest breath, Went with him over the Jordan of death.

Farwell, we will watch for thy coming no more.
None ever return that reach that cloudless shore—But ere long the angel of death will summon us too, Then we will cross the river and come to you.

THE SUN.

NEW YORK, 1882.

THE SUN for 1882 will make its fifteenth annual revolution under the present management, shining, as always, for big and little, mean and gracious, contented and unhappy, Republican and Democratic, depraved and virtuous, intelligent and obtuse. The Sun's light is for mankind and womankind of every sort; but its genial warmth is for the good, while it pours hot discomfort on the blistering backs of the persistently wicked.

The Sun of 1882 is a newspaper of a new kind. It discarded many of the forms, and a multitude of the superfluous words and phrases of ancient journalism. It undertakes to report in a fresh, succinct, unconventional way all the news of the world, omitting no event of human interest, and commenting upon affairs with the fearlessness of absolute independence. The success of this experiment was the success of The Sun. It effected a permanent change in the style of American newspapers. Every important journal established in this country in the dozen years past has been modified and bettered by the force of the Sun's example.

The Sun of 1882 will be the same outspoken, truth-telling, and interesting newspaper.

By a liberal use of the means which an un-dant prosperity affords, we shall make it better than ever before.

We shall print all the news, putting it into readable shape, and measuring its importance, not by the traditional yardstick, but by its real interest to the people. Distances from Print ing-House Square is not the first consideration with The Sun. Whenever anything happens worth reporting we get the particulars, whether it happens in Brooklyn or in Bokhara.

In politics we have decided opinions; and are accustomed to express them in language that can be understood. We say what we think about men and events. That habit is the only secret of The Sun's political course.

The Weekly Sun gathers into eight pages the gist of the daily news, and presents a concise and complete summary of the day's events, and a liberal proportion of literary, scientific, and domestic intelligence complete The Weekly Sun, and make it the best newspaper for the farmer's household ever printed.

Who does not know and read like The Sunday Sun, each of number of which is a Gol-conda of interesting literature, with the best poetry of the day, prose every line worth reading, news, humor—matter enough to fill a good-sized book, and infinitely more in variety and entertaining than any book—big or little.

If our idea of what a newspaper should be pleases you, send for The Sun.

Our terms are as follows:
For the daily Sun, a four-page sheet of twenty-eight columns, the price by mail, post paid, is 55 cents a month, or $6.60 a year; or, including the Sunday paper, an eight-page sheet of fifty-six columns, the price is 65 cents per month, or $7.70 a year, postage paid.

The Sunday edition of The Sun is also furnished separately at $1.20 a year, postage paid.
The price of the Weekly Sun of five pages, fifty-six columns, is $1 a year, postage paid.
For clubs of ten sending $10 we will send an extra copy free.

Address, I. W. ENGLAND, Publisher of The Sun, New York City.
1808-1882.

THE MISSOURI REPUBLIC
PROSPECTUS.

This paper, usually called the St. Louis Republican, published in the great trans-Mississippi emporium, was established in 1808, while the now flourishing State of Missouri was a small territory and St. Louis a mere outpost, the headquarters of a few Government officers and Indian traders. The Republican has steadily increased from a diminutive sheet, printed weekly and containing but little more than local and unimportant events, to a representative American journal, holding place in the front rank of the great newspapers of the world. Its history is the history of the West and South in all enterprises, and in all the material, political and social interests of the economy. It is the exponent of the views of that class of citizens who seek to have the Government conducted upon Democratic, popular and conservative principles, and in that regard is the organ of the most intelligent and thoughtful minds of the extensive region in which it circulates. It reaches a great majority of post-offices throughout Missouri, Illinois, Kansas, Iowa and Arkansas, and is disseminated more or less largely in every other State and Territory.
Its various editions reach over one hundred thousand homes, counting rooms, stores and offices; this fact alone makes it a powerful agent in every State and Territory, and its uniform growth, as population has increased and mail facilities expanded. Its readers are the "bone and sinew" of the country, well informed and industrious.

The Republican, from the care with which it is edited and conducted, the enterprise manifested in the collection of news from all quarters, its consistency in the advocacy of principles bearing upon the prosperity and well being of the people, has built up a circulation not to be estimated merely by its numerical greatness.

The Republican is published by men chiefly who have grown up from boyhood in the business, and have made the printing of a newspaper the study of their lives. It is practically impossible that any event of real importance could occur anywhere on the civilized earth and not be published in the Republican before the rising of the next sun. With the means and power to publish all the news, readers of its columns will have no reason to look further for a history of the times.

To those engaged in commerce, and indeed all who buy or sell, or are concerned in what is bought and sold, the Republican will supply all necessary and desirable information so far as it can be found in the most complete and careful commercial reports from every important trade centre and stock market in the world.

These are some of the features of a concern that is known throughout the West and South as the "Old Reliable."

The Weekly Republican contains the cream of all the news of the Daily and Tri-Weekly editions, and is especially edited to supply the wants of country readers. In order that there can be no excuse for not having it on account of cost, we place the price at One Dollar per year.

All subscriptions are payable in advance, and discontinue at the end of time paid for.

Terms to Agents.
